Purism sells two PureOS-powered mobile devices: the Librem 5 USA and the Librem 5. The main difference between these phones is that the parts for the Librem 5 USA are made in Purism's USA facility. Aside from PureOS, the Librem 5's primary selling features are swappable internal components, a MicroSD card slot, cellular signal, an ethical supply chain, microphone and camera, and hardware-based kill switches for Bluetooth and Wi-Fi. On the other hand, the Librem 5 is intended to be a consumer-ready product, whereas the PinePhone is intended to be a hobbyist gadget. The Librem 5 and Librem 5 USA smartphones cost $799 and $1,999. These are multiple times the price of the PinePhone.
